Thin Mint Girl Scout Cookies sell an average of 200 million cookies a year, outselling several top brands combined. Our Product Program focuses on five skills that teach girls how to operate their own business. Girls become experts in goal setting, decision making, money management, people skills, and business ethics. This program is the largest girl-run and girl-led financial literacy program in the world. $7,500 Dosidos Society

$625/month (over 1 year) or $312.50/month (over 2 years)

Dosidos, the beloved peanut butter sandwich cookies, are a long-time classic. In Girl Scouts, girls are inspired to be creative and curious as they make the world a better place. Curious people ask more questions, strengthen their critical thinking skills, and are better problem solvers—all critical components to being impactful leaders. Members of the Dosido society ensure that this generation has the kind of creativity and curiosity that sparks innovation and true, meaningful change in our world.

Trefoil means three leaves. Each leaf in the Girl Scout Trefoil stands for part of the Girl Scout Promise. When a girl becomes a Girl Scout, she receives a membership pin in the shape of a Trefoil, symbolizing her acceptance of the ethical leadership values she will learn as a member. Members of the Trefoil Society are committed to support new and returning Girl Scouts as they discover themselves, connect with other, and take action in their communities.

Members of the Samoas Society are committed to supporting girls discovering themselves, connecting with others and taking action in their community.

$1,000 Tagalong Society

Tagalong with us in this society to insure girls have an opportunity to take appropriate risks and try things even if they might fail. Girl Scouts has developed girls for more than 108 years. The power of girl-led activities, learning by doing, and cooperative learning, helps make girls excellent problem solvers and capable decision makers, gaining powerful advantages over non-Girl Scouts. Members of the Tagalong Society are insuring girls acquire leadership skills, that they will use their entire lives.
